The question raised is a very important one, affecting as it does, the interests of all the Municipalities in the Presidency except Bangalore and Mysore. I do not think the order of Govt quoted by the Dy Comr was intended to be construed in the manner in which the Dy Comr has interpreted it. If he had otherwise construed the Government order of the 19th May regarding all Municipal Cities wherever situated. C.

The foregoing orders were communicated to the Dy Commissioners in this office (72)
Cir: Memo. No 5.6-23 dt 3rd July 1995.
R.T. 2.8.32
The receipts received from all the Dy Commissioners show that the sale proceeds of building sites in minor municipalities were credited to Municipal Funds.

Submitted for further orders on the general question of crediting the sale proceeds in future.

23/9/95

No further orders necessary. Mr. Rumpus's minute filed Mds 12/10/95

Circular to Dy Commrs.

The order of Govt dt 6-4-95 (Secret No 63) raised a doubt as to the correct head of the present head under which the sale proceeds are being credited. Hitherto, the Dy Comrs of Municipalities accordingly deducted the expenditure on the subject (Note No 69) - We were informed verbally that under the Settlement of the Election the present practice might continue (No 71). All Dy Comrs were addressed on the present practice (No 72). Their replies have now been dealt with. Hence the draft put up herewith
